Untangling Tantrums

Friday 15th and 22nd November 2019

1.00 – 3.00pm

A two part information session for parents/carers of children aged from birth to four to help understand why young children behave the way they do.

We will look at why young children can get such big emotions and some strategies to help us help them.

The information will be based on children's brain development, their interaction with their parents/caregiver and the impact this can have on their behaviour.

Please call the centre to book, unfortunately we are unable to offer a crèche for these sessions.
