

WHAT IS InDIGO?

InDIGO program is a free and confidential legal service that provides legal assistance and representation to women.

The legal team of InDIGO is supported by our non-legal support team, within a safe and secure environment. The non-legal support team offers assistance with accessing non-legal support services in your local community and also assistance with financial matters.

The InDIGO program is an initiative of the Women's Legal Service (SA).

InDIGO Program

40 Beach Road,
Christies Beach SA 5165

Telephone: (08) 8384 2427

Email: indigo@wlssa.org.au

InDIGO is located at Christies Beach and it provides services to women have or are experiencing Family and Domestic Violence and who live and/or work in the southern catchment region. The local government areas covered by InDIGo are:

- City of Marion
- City of Onkaparinga
- City of Victor Harbor
- Kangaroo Island Council

OUTREACH SERVICES

InDIGO provides outreaches to several locations in its catchment area.

Please contact us on (08) 8384 2427 for more information about outreach times and locations. You can also visit the Women's Legal Service website at www.wlssa.org.au for a copy of our outreach calendar.

AREAS OF LAW

The areas of law that InDIGO can provide assistance with, include:

- Family Law - Children and Property;
- Child Protection;
- Tenancy - Family/domestic violence;
- Victims of Crime
- Debt
- Immigration; and
- Applications and defending Intervention Orders.

THE FAMILY ADVOCATE

The Family advocate will provide support to access services such as:

- health services;
- mental health services;
- homelessness services;
- domestic violence services; and
- parenting supports.

THE FINANCIAL COUNSELLOR

The Financial Counsellor provides information, support and advocacy for people in financial difficulty such as:

- budgeting;
- bill negotiations;
- options for debts; and
- assist in accessing grants or concessions.

